

Investigation Mats

How does the dough change when you squeeze it?

What would be the best kinds of objects to press in your dough?

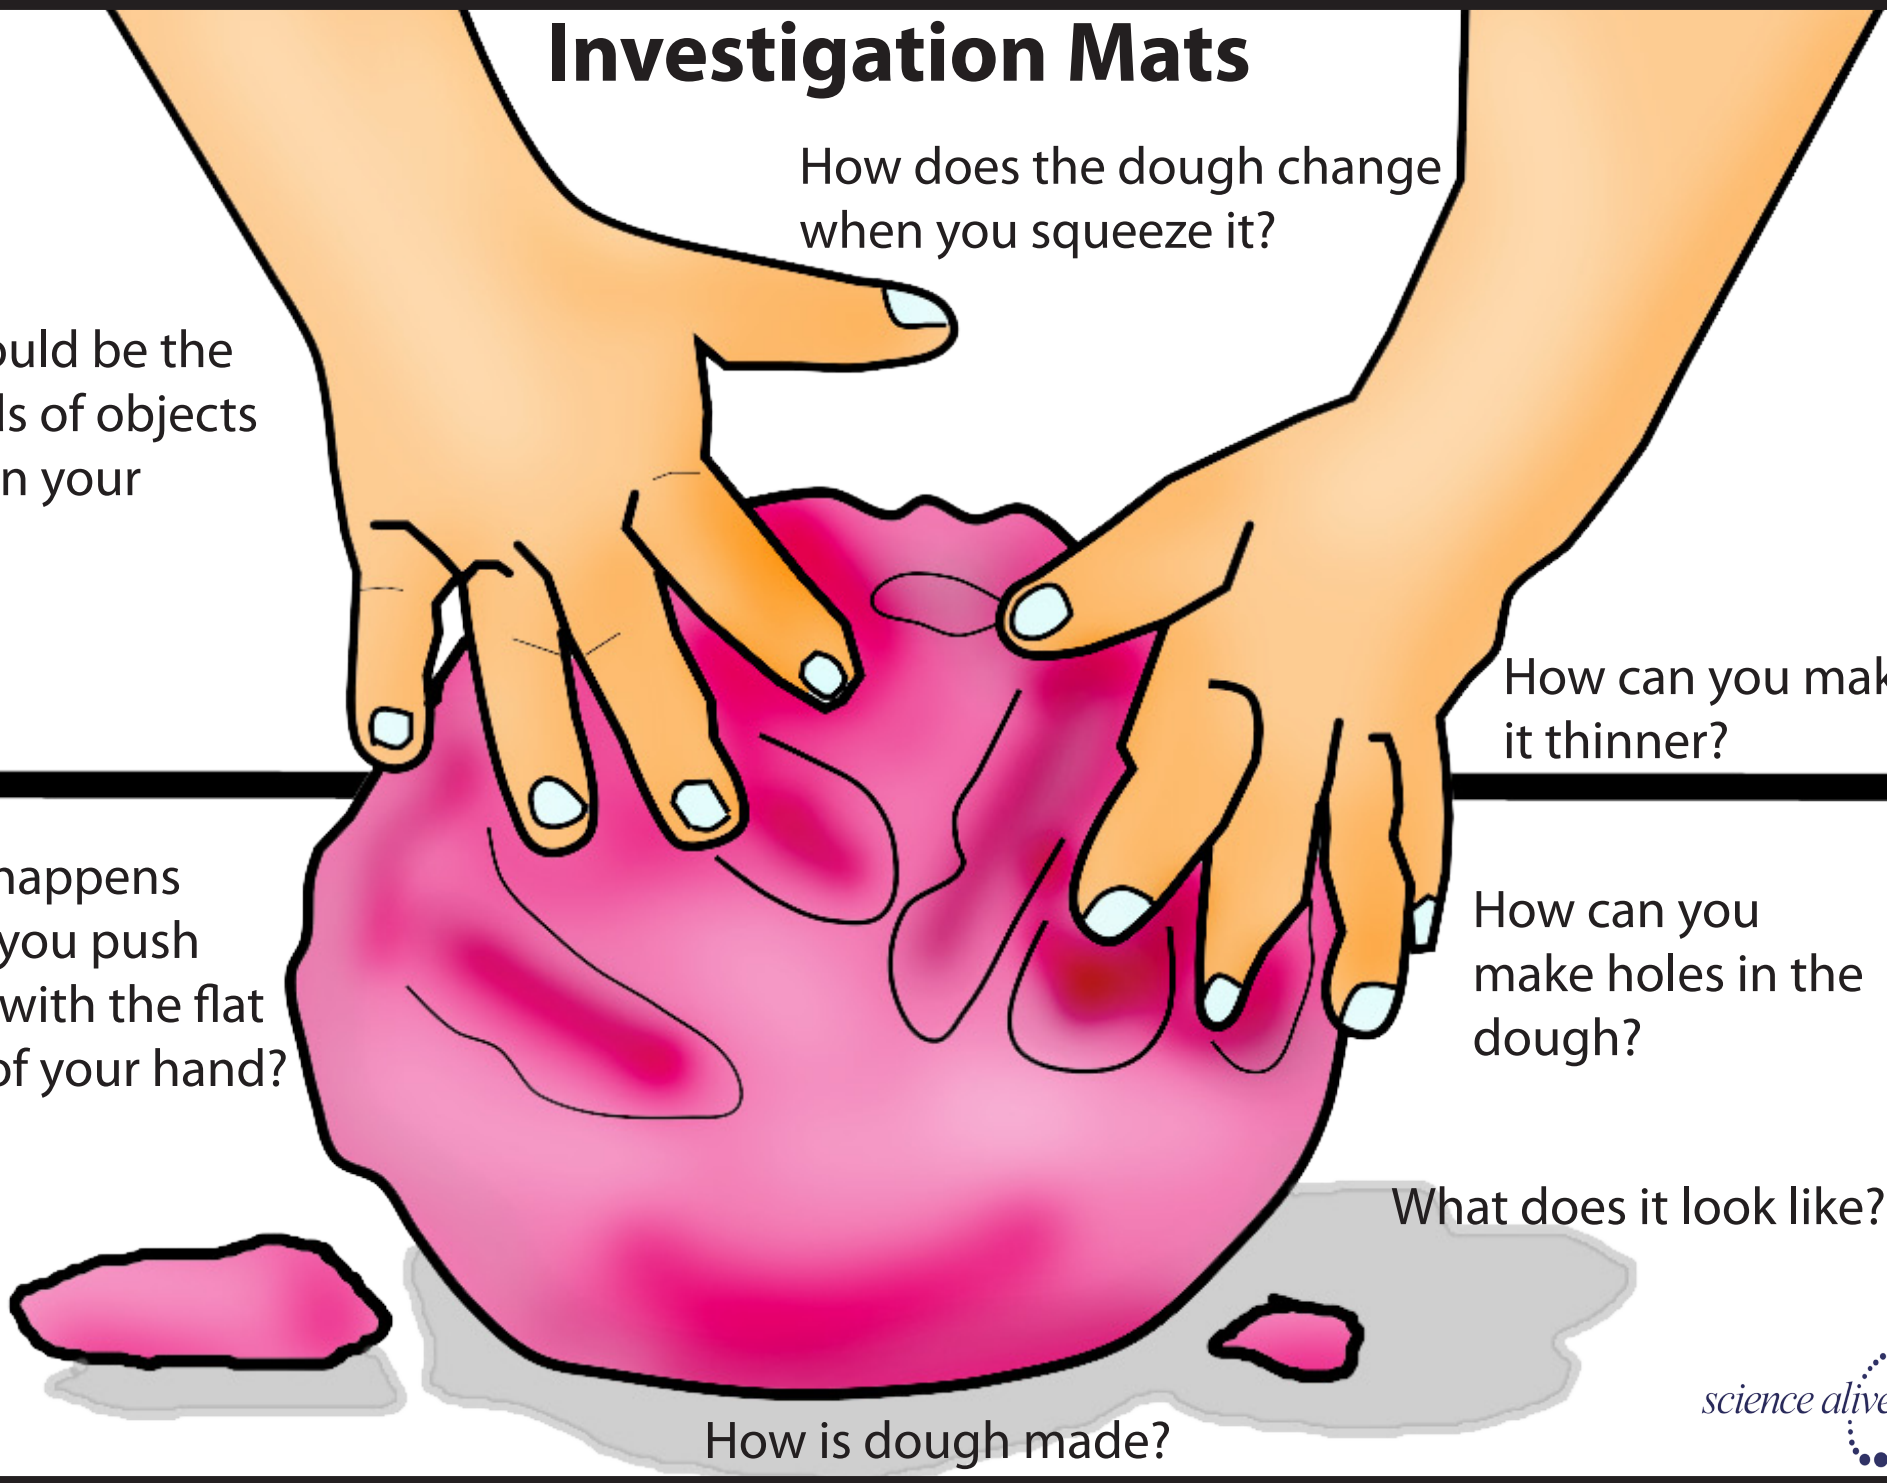

How can you make it thinner?

What happens when you push down with the flat palm of your hand?

How can you make holes in the dough?

What does it look like?

How is dough made?

Investigation Mats

What happens when you push it with your fingertips?

How can you tear it?

What does it smell like?

What ingredients would you use to make dough?

How can you make the dough long and thin?

How can you change how the dough feels?

What type of shapes can you make with your dough?

How can you make your dough tall?

Investigation Mats

How can you see through it?

How can you make the dough into a ball/sphere?

What happens when you mix two colour doughs together?

How does it feel?

How can you change the way the dough looks?

What can you do to make your ball smaller?

Can you make a dough tower?

Does it remind you of anything?

How can we find out how to make it?

Investigation Mats

What happens if you cut it with scissors?

If you mix two dough colours together can you separate them again?

What happens to the shape if you drop it?

How can you hide something in the dough?

What will happen if you pull the dough slowly with both hands?

If you break it into pieces, can you put it back together again?

How can you fold the dough?

How can you use this dough?

